Example: Alex is a VIP member. Alex hires Jimmy, Ashley, Sara, David...

500/000$ dollars have been invested by several people with Jimmy's introduction and efforts. Jamie receives 0.5% of this 500,000$ for 12 months.

1000/000 $ has been invested by several people with the introduction and efforts of Ashley. Ashley will receive half a percent of this $1 million for 12 months.

Sarah receives a half percent of this six hundred thousand dollars for 12 months.

3 million dollars have been deposited and invested by several people with the efforts and introduction of David.

David will receive half of this three million dollars for 12 months.

Well, now let's calculate how much Alex earns monthly as a VIP member that Jamie, Ashley, Sarah, and David signed up with Alex's referral and trained by Alex. The sum of the deposits that have been invested by the efforts of ordinary members is five million and one hundred thousand dollars.

Alex will receive 0.25% of them, which is 5100 dollars per month for 12 months. Now imagine that Alex hires and activates 30 members and monitors their performance daily, Alex's monthly salary will be astronomical.
